
Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Steve L - 2008/01/10 17:42

New Model Army
Drunk in Public
Rev Hammer
3 Daft Monkeys
Half Man Half Biscuit
Bob Dylan and Neil Young Dueting:laugh:

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by jacqui - 2008/01/11 12:32

Good call Steve, would also loke to see Levellers, Dead Men Walking and Dreadzone

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Mark - 2008/01/13 17:28

I'm listening !!

mark " notepad out" dale

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Steve L - 2008/01/13 17:32

Whats the chances of getting Bob and Neil then? :-)

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by jacqui - 2008/01/13 18:35

Oh ok if your making notes then Mark.....Maddy Prior, Selecter,stiff little fingers and Bad Manners would be a blast.

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Mark - 2008/01/13 21:15

http://tbn0.google.com/images?q=tbn:CS5pfzuYSkUQjM:http://bp0.blogger.com/_CeTfgCKjnlo/RrH6C0qG18I/AAAAAAAAeg/xM6Sy1Nmu14/s320/bob%2Bdylan%2B%26%2Bneil%2Byoung%2B-%2Bsan%2Bfrancisco%2Bbay%2Bblues%2B-%2Bfront.jpg ok job done - click the pic !!!

mark " sorted" dale :P

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Steve L - 2008/01/13 21:17

Very Good, I look forward to seeing them in the flesh at the festival :cheer:

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Mark - 2008/01/13 21:37

now, i was on the phone with a musician who had just toured with Bad Manners last week - he's going to talk with Buster !!

how about The Beat?

http://a357.ac-images.myspacecdn.com/images01/112/m_74efffe0e9f42f1b7f4db2e4d9ee2e44.jpg clic pic

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by daddy cool - 2008/01/13 23:16

;) I am not bothered who is there just as long as we are there to enjoy good music and good company. The waiting games starting to get to me dont know what its like for you Mark.

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Mark - 2008/01/13 23:22

just about to email you les !

mark

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Steve L - 2008/01/17 14:14

Looking good, are they just getting some practice in for the festival? Pleased to see Bob and Neil are taking it seriously. Any chance we could get Lou Reed in on the act as well?

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Remote Control Rob - 2008/02/12 18:08

I've been going to festival all my life from Glastonbury and Carling Festivals to local Folk Festival and am now bringing my 4 year old son along the same path.

Bands that have really stood out at recent festivals and have made me go WOW are:

Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain

One of my favourite entertaining bands of last year :P Their cover of Nirvana on Ukulele's has to be seen

Breabach

Saw these at Cambridge Folk Festival after I walked past the tent and they drew me in. Very talented and tipped for best scottish band of the year.

Dreadzone

Nice idea but saw them at Glastonbury and they said it was to be their last ever gig :(

Vin Garbutt

Have to put this guy in cos he's my local legend. Very Funny guy and very entertaining.

PS Cambridge Folk festival didn't put him on and now theres spirited movements and websites springing up about it :O
WOT! NO VIN?

You've been warned :P

Horace X

Psychodelic rapping folk band, is maybe the best way to discribe these guys. Very high octane and definatley get a crowd going. Consists of half of the university of cambridges music department i think.

Now depending on if these links work properly and my browser doesn't pack in for a laugh then you should have a few good bands and singers I saw over the last few years. Enjoy.

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Remote Control Rob - 2008/02/13 07:44

BTW I like the previous idea of Maddy Proir, would be cool just chilling out listening to her voice.

...and my partner thinks the beat as previosly mentioned would be a cool & lively festival band after listening to them.

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by jacqui - 2008/02/13 17:01

How about Dan Donally, Dara O'Briain - for the comedy value??

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by daddy cool - 2008/02/13 19:48

Got to be careful with the band's at the hearing.The public was informed that bands like the stranglers madness & status quo give you brain damage.Too late for me iam an old git & the brains in bits So I am Taking no chances from now on Chilling out to led zep.

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by jacqui - 2008/02/14 07:45

Oh Status Quo NO!!:ohmy:

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Remote Control Rob - 2008/02/14 09:19

BTW what type of music are you planning on having at the festival?

I get the impression its very Folky/ traditionally orientated with the pics of the Bodhran, Guinness and lovely country surroundings, but then I hear talk of Status Quo O.o

Me and my girlfriend were getting quite excited at the thought of another good folk festival but not sure whats going on now.

can someone inform us of where this is heading?

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by daddy cool - 2008/02/14 11:19

Some of the public at the hearing have the impression that it is going to be just a rock concert. They were the ones that said that we would be having bands such as Status Quo. The music will be accross the board, and any suggestions of bands or artists will be welcome on the website

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by jacqui - 2008/02/14 15:58

lets hope if the festival gets the green light we can have a world of different music and everyone is happy B)

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Remote Control Rob - 2008/02/14 17:12

TBH seen a few older veteran bands and got near the front. They wern't really crowd pleasers. For Example 2/3 songs into "The Who" we joined the stampede to the other stages with the crowd to the ominous whispers of "oh well lets go see see chemical brothers, they might be a bit better".

On the other hand when, in a moment of clarity/madness, we decided to go see what "Rolf Harris" was all about. The stage was mobbed and we could not see a thing. We had to stand about 100m outside the tent and only had a view of blow up kangeroos and the occasional loony stopping in front of us to do some heavy breathing and shout "can you see what it is yet?"

Just my two cents and others probably tell a different story. I think I may be becoming mental in my old age >:)

BTW I'm not that old :P

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by daddy cool - 2008/02/14 20:29

Nothing wrong with becoming mental as long as you can still hear the music.Is the lead singer with the chemical bros not Rolf Harris. :woohoo:

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by bluecolour - 2008/02/14 21:47

got to agree with jacqui,I wouldn't like just one type of music,to be honest though folk music just doesn't do anything for me.If they could get the stranglers to play :woohoo:.....fantastic

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Mark - 2008/02/14 21:57

well, the idea is to have a massive eclectic mix of bands, live performance and arts .. something for everyone and, we are truly open to input and ideas - of course remember we have a budget to work to ..!

so, folk, ska, jazz, blues, rock, classical, acoustic, funk, indie, brass, anything .. plus comedy, theatre, circus skills, speakers, etc etc

here to please mark " waiting" dale

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by Remote Control Rob - 2008/02/18 09:02

....and story tellers, I found a few story tellers at some festivals last year and it was something I didn't think I would like but ended up being quite interesting. :)

=====

Re:Bands I would love to see at Settle.

Posted by jacqui - 2008/02/18 09:48

oh story tellers, not seen them since the early days of Glastonbury. Brilliant idea :silly:

=====